INTRODUCTION

Language Arts is a key discipline of the K-8 curricula in the Catholic Schools of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Seeking to meet the needs of students, a committee of educators has revised this Language Arts Curriculum, to be in alignment with the current California State Framework.

These guidelines give direction to teachers in planning curriculum. Educators are encouraged to carefully review and discuss these standards, which include the four basic components of the Reading/Language Arts Framework: Reading, Writing, Listening, and Speaking. They emphasize the continuity and progression in the language arts curriculum since the standards in the earlier grades are building blocks for proficiency in the later grades. The symbol “➤” identifies the ESSENTIAL STANDARDS to be mastered in kindergarten through eighth grade.

The assessment guidelines are the basis for instruction and assist educators in the planning and implementation of curriculum. Assessments used before, during, and after instruction provide information critical to teaching, learning, and mastery.

When teachers use these guidelines as they are intended, they will not only aid instruction but will facilitate articulation between grade levels at the school site. An interactive resources component (www.sfcatholicschools.org) allows teachers to find and share valuable websites that enhance the classroom experience.

PHILOSOPHY

As educators in the Archdiocese of San Francisco, we recognize the mission of educating the whole child as the collaborative responsibility of family, school, Church, and community.

We identify language arts as a discipline that encompasses all areas of instruction. We recognize the uniqueness of each student and strive to provide a curriculum in which each can be successful in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. We promote a curriculum with explicit and systematic instruction to ensure the accomplishment of the language arts standards.

We commit to imparting Christian values and appreciating individual and multicultural diversity through language and literature. The language arts curriculum challenges students to reach a level of literacy and fluency that will enable them to become life-long learners.

LANGUAGE ARTS EXIT GOALS

Language Arts Exit Goals for Elementary Students in the Catholic Schools of the Archdiocese of San Francisco

- Students use their knowledge of word origins and word relationships, as well as historical and literary context clues, to determine the definition of specialized vocabulary and to understand the meaning of grade-level-appropriate words.
- Students read and understand grade-level-appropriate material. They describe and connect the essential ideas, arguments, and perspectives of the text by using their knowledge of text structure, organization, and purpose.
- Students read and respond to significant works of literature that reflect and enhance their studies of history, religion, and social science. They clarify the ideas and connect them to other literary works.
- Students write coherent and focused assignments. The writing exhibits students' awareness of audience and purpose. Essays contain formal introductions, supporting evidence, and conclusions.
- Students write narrative, expository, persuasive, and descriptive essays of at least 500 words in each genre. Student writing demonstrates a command of standard American English as well as organization, research, and drafting strategies.
- Students deliver focused, well-organized multi-media presentations that convey ideas clearly and relate to the background and interests of the audience.
- Students use critical thinking tools to evaluate content and style of various kinds of communication.
